Census Superintendent drew double Dirs. Class Railway Fare although he was a non gazetted officer and I beg that as a Special Case the same Concession may be shewn to him. I venture to point out that the Concession recommended for will not be much, as Mr. Lakshminarasimha Row has to perform only one journey to and from Madras.

(6) In this Connection, I beg to bring to the notice of Government that my predecessor Mr. Subroyer having Complete Confidence in the intelligence, integrity and honesty of Mr. Lakshminarasimha Row recommended him for the responsible post of a Pay Master and my experience of his work fully bears out the recommendations of my predecessor. As no definite prospects have been held out to him, I beg to recommend that in the event of his returning duly qualified, he may be appointed, as in the Case of the other Probationers before him, an Assistant Comptroller on a salary of Rs 250—25—400. I make this recommendation as Mr. Lakshminarasimha Row has been drawing Rs 200/- for nearly 3½ years, taking into Consideration his high Educational qualifications and the very satisfactory manner in which he did his work both in this office and in the Census Department.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedt. servant
